

General conditions of use of Cesga services.

All users of any service offered by Cesga must know and accept the next general conditions:

Legality

The users compromise not accept or stimulate practices that go against spanish or european laws.

About Security

- Not Sharing access data with any other person outside technical staff of Cesga.
- Use always Passwords that must be safe and unknown for the other people.
- Compromise to keep all security measures, and also prohibited not to access to the resources, systems or information of Cesga without authorization.
- Must inform to support services of Cesga, of any event that supposes any fail in the security systems or any other potential risk.

Related to the use

- Compromise to use resources in an efficient way and only for the purpose that has been authorized.
- Do not use Cesga resources in a way that could be offensive for other users.
- Any responsibility of Cesga technicians will be denied, in the case of suffer a loss as a result of the usage of Cesga resources.
- Allow the Cesga technicians access to the information generated at the Cesga, and also monitoring of all activities in order to keep the proper functioning of the resources used.
- Accept that the resources of Cesga are not always available for use in the expected mode and deny any responsibility of Cesga technicians in the case of being affected for the availability or any aspect of Cesga resources.

Responsability and Sanctions

When an incorrect or a not acceptable use is demonstrated with respect to the specified in this document, the Cesga will proceed to the interruption of the service given, depending on the severity or reiteration of the incident, or the temporary suspension of the service (or the indefinite withdrawall of it)

All the responsibilities that could derive from the incorrect use of the resources from the user will be assumed by the user.

The Cesga will provide means necessary to allow the consult of these rules in an easy way.